

English 3 Learning Targets

Modern Short Stories Unit

Name _____

Hour _____

LEARNING TARGETS	BEGINNING OF THE UNIT This is review for me	PRE- TEST I still have work to do	PRE- TEST I'm ready for the test	TEST I do not understand these concepts	TEST I need help or I am making mistakes	TEST I can answer the questions correctly.
I can explain the MODE of a story
I can explain the AUDIENCE of a story
I can explain the PURPOSE of a story
I can explain the SITUATION of a story
I can make personal connections with other authors' narratives
I can write my own narrative
I can infer and discuss what an author means and why an author wrote his/her narrative
I can recognize literary devices and explain their affect on the reader
I can investigate unknown vocabulary
I can effectively summarize a story and understand the key points
I can discuss controversial topics without becoming inappropriate, offensive, or defensive
I can explain the difference between 1 st person, 2 nd person, and 3 rd person
I can explain the difference between fiction and non-fiction

I can explain the difference between biography and autobiography
I can annotate a text
I can use different reading strategies to create my own understanding of what I read
I can work through a difficult text and figure it out without asking someone else what it means
I can figure out why a character in a story makes the choices they make
I can recognize and fix comma splices
I can write without using comma splices
I can put sentences in paragraphs in order to create the most accurate meaning
I can edit my writing using the 6 traits rubric
I can understand the effect that specific words have on a reader and choose my words effectively
I can recognize and explain what makes a text effective and of merit						